iGaming North America Conference Partners with iGaming Business Magazine

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Denver, Colorado)

The iGaming North America Conference, a Nevada-based conference and trade show for the iGaming industry in North America, has partnered with iGaming Business, producers of leading industry trade publications iGaming Business and iGaming Business North America.

iGaming Business will add their expertise to the existing conference team, which includes: renowned Nevada gaming attorney, Tony Cabot; The Innovation Group COO, Kim Arnold; and iGaming industry veterans Mark Balestra and Sue Schneider.

Cabot said, "We're pleased to have iGaming Business join forces with us as we develop our 2014 iGNA conference. The event continues to grow in size and importance as various states and provinces explore regulatory structures to allow for interactive gaming."

Michael Caselli, Editor of iGaming Business added, "iGaming Business made its foray into North America in 2012 with a new publication so this is a natural extension of our brand. We hope our 11 years of experience in iGaming information services and events will help iGaming North America to continue to grow and service the needs of the American iGaming community as this exciting market develops."

iGaming North America will host its 4th annual conference March 19-21 at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas. For more information on the event please go to www.iGamingNorthAmerica.com

About iGaming North America

The 2014 iGaming North America conference marks the fourth year of this unique networking and educational event designed to introduce the land-based gaming businesses of North America to the global iGaming industry. Our aim is to provide a cost-effective networking environment that helps foster understanding regarding the potential impacts of regulation of internet gambling in the U.S. and Canada, and provides critical information regarding the players, resources, legislative framework and topics that are important to all of the parties that comprise the important commercial gaming segment. With the surge in activity at both the state/provincial as well as federal levels, the time is right for all of the operators, consultants, vendors and suppliers focused on the North American audience to come together for this important informational event. Please visit www.iGamingNorthAmerica.com for further information.
